Continuous Evaluation Report 2020-2021

College makes sure that all students should be informed about examinations in due time and all students should be able to attend examinations. An Orientation is offered by the college in the first semester of the program providing information on the internal evaluation process. The college has a basic structure for the continuous internal assessment of theory and practice defined in the Academic regulation of the College/University. For the schedule of exams, the Academic Calendar is strictly followed. Under CBCS pattern two internal examinations of 25 marks each are conducted for the subject of Foundation Course. For the 2016-17 pattern, an internal examination of M. Com. is held for 40 Marks. Marks of internal examination are shared with students after the exam. Exam and Grievances committee is set up to solve problems of students related to an internal exam only.

Due to the pandemic, exams were conducted online and it is taken care that no student should be deprived due to internet connectivity and any other such technical problems. Personal contact to the students in a timely, also students are informed text messages through WhatsApp. Marks obtained by the students are informed to them. In this way, the college Commerce Department maintains transparency in examinations.
